"Responsiveness was, on the whole, excellent on this model. It provided a very competent performance at a refresh rate of up to 165Hz, without any measurable or observable degradation in image quality compared to lower refresh rates such as 60Hz." Adam Simmons

"Considering the prices of other gaming monitors with the same key features, the ViewSonic XG2703-GS IPS gaming monitor delivers equal quality for significantly less money.... You can have all the traits required for gaming and save up to $300." Michael Johnson
